Sarasin Responsible Multi Asset, a sub-fund of Sarasin Funds ICVC

Class L Acc ISIN:GB00BLBPY645

This Fund is managed by Sarasin Investment Funds Limited

Objectives and Investment Policy

Objective

We seek to grow the Fund (through increases in investment value and income) over a rolling 5 year period after deducting fees and costs.

Investment Policy

We will invest 40% to 85% of the Fund in the shares of companies from around the world, although this allocation will most typically be around 60%. We will also typically invest 30% of the Fund in bonds issued by companies and governments, with the remaining 10% invested in alternative investments and cash. The Fund will gain exposure to shares of companies from around the world directly and indirectly through investment in collective investment schemes (including exchange traded funds, active funds and index trackers). Bond exposure will generally be obtained through direct investment. Exposure to alternative investments will generally be obtained indirectly through investment in collective investment schemes. Alternative investments include, but are not limited to, infrastructure, commodities and private equity/venture capital. Exposure to any of the above asset classes may be obtained through investment in funds (including funds managed by Sarasin).

The Fund is actively managed which means the Investment Manager decides which investments to buy and sell and when, albeit some of these investments may be passively managed (i.e. typically tracking an index such as exchange traded funds).

We select companies to invest in from any country/region, sector or industry subject to the restrictions stated below. We identify the long-term investment themes that drive growth and lead to disruption in global economies and industries.We select companies based on our own analysis of which are most likely to benefit from these themes, and are well placed to grow their revenues and cash flows as a result of them.

Integral to this analysis is an in-house tool devised to examine and quantify any material environmental, social and/or governance ("ESG") factors. A comprehensive assessment of the related risks and opportunities resulting from these factors are then embedded within our financial modelling and analysis of companies.

We undertake fundamental analysis on bond issuers, which includes an evaluation of risks that ESG factors pose. We implement an in-house scoring system which combines our assessment of the materiality of ESG risks associated with each industry sector with data on each bond issuer to generate an overall issuer-specific ESG rating and only invest in bonds whose issuer has as ESG rating above a pre-determined level.

We avoid companies that are materially engaged in certain sectors, including the production of tobacco, alcohol, armaments, gambling, adult entertainment, thermal coal, the extraction of fossil fuel from tar sands, oil and gas extraction, production and refining, land mines, civilian firearms, nuclear weapons and predatory lending.

Further detail on how we do this is available in the Guide to Ethical Exclusions on our website at www.sarasinandpartners.com.

We also avoid investments that we have judged to exhibit excessive ESG weaknesses, as reflected in the lowest ESG rating allocated following our analysis. The investments available to this Fund might therefore be more limited than for less constrained funds that do not avoid such companies.

We engage as far as possible with companies to promote actions to mitigate material ESG risks identified with priority given according to the materiality of our concern, the size of our holding, and also our view of the ability for engagement to have a meaningful impact. Voting is integral to our engagement work and, where we are a shareholder, we seek to ensure our voting is aligned with our engagement priorities.

We may only use derivatives to maintain the Fund's value, manage investment risk and to gain cost-effective access to investments. Derivatives are financial contracts whose value is linked to the price of another asset (e.g. indices, rates, share prices, currencies).

The Fund's performance can be assessed by reference to a blended benchmark of;

50% MSCI All Countries World Index (Net Total Return)
10% MSCI All Countries World index (100% Hedged to GBP)
15% ICE BofA Sterling Corporate & Collateralised Index
15% ICE BofA UK Gilts All Stocks Index
5% Sterling Overnight Index Average (SONIA)
5% SONIA+2%

This represents a typical mix of assets held by the Fund.

Distribution Policy

Any income due from your investment is reflected in the value of your shares rather than being paid out.

Dealing Frequency

You can buy and sell shares in the Fund before 12 noon GMT on any business day in London.

Recommendation

This Fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money within 5 years. For full investment objectives and policy details please refer to the Prospectus. For further details on the Fund's sustainability approach please refer to the SDR Consumer Facing Disclosure document.

Risk and Reward Profile

1	2	3	4	5	6	7

The Risk and Reward Indicator table demonstrates where the fund ranks in terms of its potential risk and return, calculated using the volatility of monthly returns over five years. As it is based upon how the fund has performed in the past, you should note that the fund may well perform differently in the future. The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may shift over time.

The higher the rank the greater the potential reward but the greater the risk of losing money. The lowest risk number does not mean risk free.

The Fund is ranked at 4 reflecting observed historical returns. The fund is in this category because it has shown moderate levels of volatility historically.

The following risks may not be fully captured by the Indicator:

- Bond risk: In stressed conditions bonds may become harder to sell in a timely manner, resulting in unpredictable changes in the value of your holdings.
- Emerging markets risk: Emerging markets may face more political, economic or structural challenges than developed markets. Shares may also be less liquid, meaning investments may not be sold quickly enough to prevent or minimize a loss. As a result, investing in emerging markets may involve a higher risk than investing in developed markets.
- Alternatives risk: The fund may invest in alternative assets that are difficult to sell quickly, challenging to value, and subject to higher fees. These assets may also contribute to greater price volatility compared to traditional assets such as equities, fixed income and cash. Such conditions could lead to unpredictable changes in the value of your holdings.
- Derivatives risk: Derivatives are financial instruments whose value is linked to the expected future price movements of an underlying asset. Derivatives such as futures, forward contracts, options, and swaps may be used to seek to manage risk within the fund, reduce investment costs and generate additional income. However, these strategies may not be successful and could lead to losses greater than the cost of the derivative.
- Exchange Traded Funds (ETFs) risk: ETFs are subject to market fluctuations and the risks of their underlying investments. They are also subject to management fees and other expenses.
- Operational risk: Operational risks arising from failures or delays in processes and systems, or the failure of a third-party provider may affect the value of your investments. If compensation is required to due failures, payments may be delayed.
- Counterparty and settlement risk: The fund could lose money if a counterparty with which it transacts with becomes unwilling or unable to repay money owed to the fund.
- Charges deducted from capital: The fund has charges deducted from capital, which may reduce the potential for growth.
- Further details of the risks that apply to the fund can be found in the fund's Prospectus.
